ATTENTION! WE NEED YOUR HELP!!

Seek and Find

OH NO! NASA has informed us that they sent a team of forty astronauts on a secret mission and they have gotten themselves lost, Along with their rocket ship. According to NASA’s control center, the last time they spoke with them they were in Anadarko! Please help us locate the astronauts so we can return them (but don’t forget to snap a selfie with them first and share it on our Facebook page Anadarko Community Library or email your picture to library@cityofanadarko.org).

For each astronaut returned to the library will be 1 entry into a drawing for a Galileo scope.

Rocket ship returned to the library is an automatic Galileo scope!

Can’t seem to locate an astronaut anywhere? Check our Facebook page for weekly hints!
